Razzberry Rhinoceros celebrated its ninth anniversary on Tuesday night with a Woodstock-themed party. Nine years of peace and music was their strap line and indeed there was lots of both — live music by a handful of musicians including Shadab Khan and Gino Banks (Louis Banks Jr) and peace because there was hardly anyone there. The mezzanine level was entirely deserted (clearly no takers for pool!) and the dance floor only sparingly occupied. Not like the good old days at all…
